

Dressage

T O D A Y

November 2006

PRESENTS APLENTY!

This basket is brimming with horsey treasures for holiday gift-giving.

By Anya K. Crane

Patricia Laszko

Here is the ultimate gift for the dressage rider or trainer with hard-working performance horses. Game Ready Equine (gamereadyequine.com) provides controllable dry cold application and compression together that diminishes swelling and removes heat. Used extensively to treat human injuries, it has a gentle adjustable squeeze-and-release action. The cost is $3,220. Some wraps are additional.

Game Ready Equine therapeutic system

With so much to choose from this season—coordinated clothing, functional items for the horse, full lines of utilitarian products and, of course, the holiday season beckons us to find a few luxury picks—finding a gift for your favorite dressage rider may seem a daunting task. Here are a few ideas to get you started.